BOLD COATS

Let's bundle up.

Growing up I used to look through plenty of fashion magazines and never saw too many bodies that looked like mine. I started creating Look books as a way to display fashion for plus-size women. I've been know for my versatile summer looks, specifically my swimsuits but this year I wanted to add a few layers and create a look book for outerwear styles you should be adding to your closet right now.

I've collaborated with a couple of brands and you can shop these styles on their website. This lookbook is all about helping you choose the right coat/jacket for all your occasions.

Anyway, I hope you enjoy this one.

THANK YOU!

I want to say a special thank you to all the brands in this collaboration for accepting my vision to create a look book for curvy women. I want to also say thank you to my photographers for braving the cold weather for these shoots. And most of all thank you for supporting the darkerberrie brand.
